DID YOU KNOW THERE IS NOW A HISTORY ASSOCIATION IN MIDDLE PARK?

FOUNDED in 2011, the MIDDLE PARK HISTORY GROUP aims to:

- promote awareness and the preservation of Middle Park history
- involve and encourage the Middle Park community to actively participate in historical research
- seek from the community oral histories, photographs and moving images, documents and artefacts relevant to Middle Park history
- encourage research by government, educational institutions and others that can illuminate Middle Park history and culture.
- seek resources, both financially and in-kind to enhance the work of the Group

Membership benefits include:

- Become involved in a range of activities organized by the Middle Park History Group, including exhibitions and walks.
- Participate in our monthly meetings, usually with a guest speaker.
- Join in Royal Historical Society events, along with invites from our neighbourhood historical societies and the City of Port Phillip
- Receive our informative quarterly newsletter.
- Share an interest in the history of Middle Park with like-minded people
- Become involved in research projects and the promotion of our history.

Please let us know if you have any particular interest or have historical photographs or documents that might assist the work of the Middle Park History Group
